

About studio mo man tai - Milan Design Week 2026 | 5VIE

At studio mo man tai the designers strongly believe in cooperation, in a limitless mindset, in designing boundless and realizing something tangible.

They will design what you want to express, what you want to show and/or what you want to experience. And they also want to share knowledge, like to explore and in their view nothing is impossible through in-house expertise and a broad external network.

You can contact them for concept development, graphic design, product-, furniture- and interior design, for devising new strategies within organizations, for visual story telling and for immersive installations. A generalists' offer through a full service experience.
